

Vision

learn to reach out to each other with hearts and hands

Credo

- We are committed to humanity, harmony and warmth, and to embedding ourselves in the subconscious of our guests and our employees.
- We are a transparent, sincere enterprise. Together we create new goals and values.
- We are a warm and sympathetic team which creates a familiar atmosphere in which to welcome our guests.
- The team works and makes decisions independently within their sphere of competence. To foster a lively team spirit, we provide space and quality of life.
- We respect and uphold the uniqueness of Nature and our environment, conscious of their unique role in providing living and recreational space for humans and animals alike.
- We are passionate and honest about our cooking which is cosmopolitan and, by combining different cuisines, contributes to an understanding of other cultures.
- We regard health and vitality as our most important resource and are committed to their preservation.
- Profit is the reward for our efforts.
- We, the Belvedere Team, create for our guests and employees an equilibrium of body, mind and spirit. Our highest goal is to give our clients what money cannot buy.
